SALARY: $35,000 - $50,000/Yr. Varies by Jurisdiction

VACANCY: The list established as a result of this exam will be used to fill any vacancies that may occur during the life of this list.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT: There are no residency requirements for this exam. Preference in certification may be given to successful candidates who are residents of the municipality one month prior to the date of certification.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: Incumbents in this position are responsible for all aspects of the implementation and use of computers in the school district. The Technology Coordinator is expected to analyze the computing and automation needs of the school district. The incumbent is responsible for learning new software packages, training district personnel in their use, and routine computer maintenance. The work is performed under the general supervision of the Superintendent of Schools. Does related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- A. Graduation from a regionally accredited or NYS registered four year college or university with a Bachelor's Degree in computer science, computer technology, or a closely related field and one (1) year of full-time paid experience or its part-time paid equivalent in computer repair and/or training; OR
- B. Graduation from a regionally accredited or NYS registered two year college with an associate's Degree in computer science, computer technology, or a closely related field and three (3) years of full-time paid experience or its part-time paid equivalent in computer repair and/or training; OR
- C. Graduation from high school or possession of a high school equivalency diploma and five (5) years of full-time paid experience or its part-time paid equivalent in computer repair and/or training; OR
- D. An equivalent combination of training and experience as defined by the limits of (A), (B), and (C).

FOR CORTLAND COUNTY EMPLOYEES:

Background Investigation: Effective 9-1-16 applicants will be required to undergo a state and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.

SUBJECT OF THE EXAMINATION: The examination for the position will consist of two parts: a rated evaluation of training and experience and a qualifying pc-administered test. You must pass the evaluation of training and experience in order to take the qualifying pc-administered test. You must pass both tests in order to be considered for appointment. Only your rating on the evaluation of training and experience will be considered when computing final scores.

RATED EVALUATION OF TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE:

You will complete a questionnaire that asks for specific information on your information technology education (formal degrees, IT-related training courses, certifications) and experience. You will also be asked to briefly describe a significant achievement in each of the job's areas and to provide the name and contact information for someone who can verify your information. The information you provide about your experience will be rated against the following areas:

Help Desk
User Support
Network Administration
Data Communications
Telecommunications
Business/Systems Analysis
Web Site Development
Microcomputer Repair

QUALIFYING PC-ADMINISTERED WRITTEN TEST WILL BE DESIGNED TO TEST FOR KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND OR ABILITIES IN SUCH AREAS AS:

- Logical Reasoning and Interpreting Instructions for Computer-Related Positions: These multiple-choice questions test for ability to reason logically and interpret instructions in a computer-related context. They cover verbal and quantitative reasoning, flowchart interpretation and applying written directions. The verbal and quantitative reasoning questions include logical implications (e.g., if A and B, then C) and relations (e.g., greater than). Knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division is necessary, but neither mathematical sophistication nor computational speed is needed. The interpreting instructions questions provide the instructions and specific rules for applying them. All the information needed to answer the questions is presented with the questions.
- User Support and Training: This simulation exercise requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in a Help Desk support unit. Candidates will be presented with a user's problem. During the course of handling the problem, candidates will be required to: demonstrate communication skills, apply troubleshooting practices and tools, determine the appropriate level of training needed by the user, and educate the user on the proper use of computers.
- Working Effectively with Others to Solve Job-Related Problems: This simulation exercise requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in an Information Technology work group who is working with colleagues during a time of change in policy or procedure, in a particular agency. During the exercise, candidates will be required to deal with obstacles within the working environment, which includes peer relations and the demands of handling multiple tasks. Candidates will be required to demonstrate the ability to be flexible, creative and persistent as a team player. They will also need to demonstrate the ability to cooperate, show initiative, and establish positive working relationships with peers and administrators.

Qualifying test scores may be banked and applied to future examinations for titles that require the same test plan.

If a candidate has previously passed an IT Qualifying Test prepared by the New York State Department of Civil Service and using the same test plan as announced, the qualifying test may be waived. A candidate requesting such a waiver must submit verifiable evidence of passing the qualifying test, including the name of the Civil Service agency that administered the test and the test date.

Retest Policy: Candidates who fail the qualifying test or candidates who wish to improve their position on the eligible list, may reapply to retake the examination after a six (6) month period has passed from the date of previous examination.

VETERANS OR DISABLED VETERANS who are eligible for additional credits must submit an application for veterans credits prior to the establishment of the eligible list for the examination. Only those veterans who have served on active duty during the creditable periods of war will be eligible for veterans credits. Additionally, Veterans credits will only be added to the score of a candidate who has attained a passing grade of 70 or higher. Veterans credits may not be used to achieve a passing score.

APPLICATIONS CAN BE OBTAINED at the Office of Personnel, 60 Central Avenue, Cortland NY. Applications may be accepted until 4:30 p.m. on the last filing date.

TIME AND PLACE OF EXAMINATION: Approved candidates will be notified by mail regarding the time and place the exam is to be held. If notice of approval or disapproval is not received three (3) days prior to the exam date, please call this office at 607 753-5076.

An Equal Opportunity Employer: M/F

This examination is being prepared and rated by the NYS Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23.2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the NYS Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the ratings of exams will apply to this test.
